

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PARK CITY.

The Women's Atheneum met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. B. Wight. The only paper of the day, was written by Mrs. H. S. Townsend and was on Rousseau. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wight.

The Five Hundred Afternoon Card club met Thursday with Mrs. O. C. Lockhart and Mrs. O. W. Allen was the prize winner.

Mrs. G. B. Farandorf has returned to her home in Ely, Nev., after a ten-day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence.

Miss Gertrude McLaughlin entertained the "Billiken" girls Thursday evening. The young ladies dressed clothes pins and Miss Crescent Smith won the prize. Other guessing games were had and Miss Dora Evans was the successful guesser.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson was a Salt Lake passenger Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Cunningham and daughter, Miss Minnie, spent a few days in Salt Lake during the week.

The Cotton club met Friday evening in Society hall.

Misses Julia Hurley and May Nimmo have spent the week in Park with relatives.

The O. L. S. C. met with Mrs. Henry Welch Tuesday afternoon and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Kessel.

Misses Hanchie Deighton and Nellie Jennings returned to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon after a week spent in Park.

The senior and sophomore classes of the Park City High school were entertained at the Electric theatre Wednesday evening and refreshments were served at Waters & Fitzgerald. Misses Catharine Cunningham and Cora Mulgrave chaperoned the crowd.

Mrs. P. H. Towey returned to her home in Park Thursday morning after an absence of six weeks.

Miss Millie Bond has returned to her home in Arizona after two months spent in Park with relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson entertained about forty of her friends Wednesday evening in compliance to Miss Rhoda Thompson of California. Cards were played, and being the game, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Whiteley, Mrs. Smith, Dr. Bardeley and Mr. Whiteley. The house was decorated with cut flowers, and delicious refreshments were served.

W. W. Armstrong spent Thursday in Park City.

The Easter ball given Monday evening in Maple hall was well attended and was a success.

Ira Sherman, Ira Diem and Roger McDonough, the Park City debating boys, went to Salt Lake Thursday afternoon. Superintendent Griffin was a Salt Lake passenger this week.

Mrs. Charles Shields returned to Park City Wednesday morning after a visit of several days in Salt Lake.

Miss Ethel Doyle entertained at a luncheon Thursday. Covers were laid for four.

Mrs. John Thompson of Salt Lake is visiting in Park City with Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. Kessel.

Mrs. G. S. Hutton of Ogden, Mrs. Georgiana Higson, Mrs. Hattie Comfort, Mrs. Sarah McCarty, Mrs. C. W. Keyes, grand lodge officers of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star in Utah, paid an official visit to Mountain chapter No. 2 Friday evening. After the meeting a banquet was served to the members.

Mrs. L. D. Gray returned home Friday morning after a two weeks' visit in Salt Lake.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served Saturday in the banquet room of Masonic hall for the visiting grand lodge officers and all the members of Mountain chapter.

After the regular council meeting on Thursday evening the councilmen attended the Electric theatre in a body.

James Lockhart, at one time a resident of Park City, but now of Ely, Nev., has been visiting with friends and relatives here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks are visiting at the Silver King mine.

The members of St. Luke's guild met with Mrs. John Deason this week.

Will Sutton has gone to Fay, Nev. Miss Hannah Leconte has returned home after several weeks' visit in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Durfee was a Salt Lake passenger Thursday afternoon.

Ed Leconte and a party of friends will leave soon for an extended visit to Sheridan, Wyo. Before their return they will take a trip through Yellowstone park.

W. D. Sutton is visiting in Provo.

MURRAY.

One of the most enjoyable times held here for some time was the affair given at the Arlington gym Friday evening, by about thirty boys and girls of the Arlington school. The large gym was handsomely decorated for the purpose, with various types of work that has been done during the past year. From the top of the roof to the table in the center of the floor large streamers of red and white, the class colors, were used, making a very pretty effect.

While the large supper was in progress C. E. Gauffin and W. Fowler, in whose honor the event was given, responded to toasts given by the various students. A genuine good time was experienced by all who attended.

William Fitzgerald and wife are here from Ely, Nev., where they now reside. They are contemplating remaining in Murray for a month or so longer before returning to their home.

Mrs. L. M. Miller of Garfield was in Murray for a day this week visiting with her parents.

Miss Merl Miller left Saturday evening over the Salt Lake Route for Los Angeles, where she goes to complete her studies at Occidental college.

Mrs. J. E. Thurgood of Clearfield was a Murray visitor for at least three days of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barlow of the north were in Murray this week visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sanders of Salt Lake were here sojourning for two days with relatives this week.

George Parkinson of Sandy made a flying business trip here Thursday morning, returning to his home on the evening train.

Murray's Choral society presented its cantata at the Sugar House meeting house Wednesday evening. A large audience highly complimented the work of Director William Robinson.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fisher Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ernest Stewart of Garfield has returned to her home after a three days' sojourn here.

Miss Eva Harker of Candia is here, having arrived the fore part of the week. Miss Harker is expecting to remain in Murray during the summer months.

Sunday evening the employees of the Eagle and Murray Amusement company pleasantly surprised J. S. Barlow at his home on Freeze avenue. The evening was spent in social chat and a musical program, after which a dainty luncheon was served. During the evening Mr. Barlow was presented with a gold signet ring as a token of respect from the employees.

Mrs. William Caldwell, wife of Marshall Caldwell, is confined at the St. Mark's hospital in Salt Lake, where she will undergo an operation for an injury received some time ago.

Thomas Timmons of Evanston, Wyo., formerly an old resident of Murray, is here visiting with his brother, W. G. Timmons. Mr. Timmons will remain here for some time before returning to his home in Wyoming.

Easter was generally celebrated in Murray. Several Easter parties were given, especially for the smaller children. The foreigners' celebration of Easter lasted Monday, as well as Sunday. Appropriate services were held at all Murray churches on that day.

Mrs. George Scott and sister, Mrs. H. S. Cahoon, spent the fore part of this week at Logan visiting with relatives in that vicinity.

Mrs. W. W. Timmons of Barstow, Cal., is here visiting with her sister.

One of the pretty affairs of the week was the party given at the home of Miss Eva Hamill Tuesday, in honor of Miss Hamill's younger sister, Grace. The home was quite prettily decorated for the occasion, and a large supper served in the spacious dining room was one of the features of the evening.

Miss Pearl Johnson of Logan is passing a few days' time among the younger set of Murray this week.

Miss Annabel Harkness will arrive home some time the latter part of this month from Chicago, where she has been studying music for the past four months.

Albert Richards is home from the southern part of the state, where he has been for the past month.

H. Cunningham has left for his home in Idaho, after a stay of some time here with his sister.

Harold Day left Saturday evening for Kansas City, where he will remain for the next three months with his brother.

The members of the fire department are contemplating entertaining at another of their annual smokers within the next week or so. Invitations will be issued to outside organizations.

Miss Carol Hubbard has left for her home in Seattle. Miss Hubbard was a Murray visitor for a day or so last week.

Murray First Ward Dramatic club has now disbanded for the season, and this week C. G. Carlson will leave for New York City, where he intends to spend the summer months. Mr. Carlson will return to Murray again in the dramatic club.

PROVO.

The College club entertained at a party Wednesday evening at the Timpanogas school. City of the guests were dressed as school children and thoroughly enjoyed the novel games played. The school rooms were fitted up for the occasion, and decorations were in keeping with customs of early school days in Utah.

The Severus club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Annie E. Evans on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ina G. Hodson read a very interesting paper on "General Ballington Booth" of the Salvation Army. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to business pertaining to the club.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Smith announce the engagement of their daughter Eva to Lynn Howe. The marriage will take place at the Salt Lake temple April 23.

Miss Mand Bullock entertained the Forget-Me-Not club at her home on Sunday evening. Easter games were played and many musical selections were rendered. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The dancing party at the Mozart hall on Wednesday night, given by the Telluride J. Frank Merrill and company, and their friends was a great social success. The hall and reception rooms were artistically arranged with flowers. There were about seventy-five couples present.

Instead of the regular teachers' meeting last Monday a game of basketball was played on the Franklin school grounds.

After the game the teachers adjourned to the building, where the lady teachers served delicious refreshments, after which the famous barn dance was introduced by Principal George Powlson and Mrs. May A. Booth and a Paderewski piano selection was given by Eugene Roberts. Altogether it was pronounced the most pleasant social given by the teachers this season.

A party consisting of the following young people enjoyed an Easter outing Saturday last: Iona Knight, Amy Mangum, Mina Taylor, Fay Loose and Very Hardy and the Messers, Jack Christensen, Clarence Jones, Thatcher Jones and Homer Jones. The trip was made on horseback and a midday lunch was served at the Knight bungalow in Provo canyon.

Miss Delphia Thorpe of Pleasant Grove spent a few days this week in Provo, the guest of Miss E. Armitstead.

After a few days' visit with Provo friends Miss Melissa Shaw has returned to her home in Ogden.

The fourth year graduating class of the B. Y. university presented the play "The Amozons" to a crowded house at College hall on Wednesday evening.

The B. Y. T. G. company is busily engaged in the preparation and rehearsal of "The Beggar Student," which they expect to put on the boards at the close of the school year.

The Sorosis Junior girls were entertained on Monday evening at the home of Miss Florence Moore. Music was the main feature, followed by readings and light refreshments.

Miss Emily Mace gave a very enjoyable candy making party to a number of her friends on Monday evening. Candy pulling, games and music were indulged in.

BRIGHAM.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Wm. L. Eddy Monday afternoon by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. E. Commercial club at the home of Mrs. E. W. Dunn. The surprise was given Mrs. Eddy in appreciation of her untiring efforts as president of the club during the past year. Mrs. Eddy was presented a number of table linen. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and a most enjoyable time was spent by the ladies of the club.

A pleasant party was given Thursday afternoon by Miss Hilda Hansen at her home to a number of her friends. A good social time was enjoyed by the present and during the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Edna Dwyer was the recipient of a linen shower Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Anderson. The shower was tendered her by a number of her co-workers at the county court house and other friends. The evening was spent in games, music and social chat. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. Emma Lundgren gave an Easter party Monday to her friends and time lady friends. The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The refreshments were of a most delicious nature. A fine dinner was served and all had an enjoyable time.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Call Saturday evening Miss Irene Anderson gave a most pleasant Easter party. Games and other amusements made up the pleasant program for the evening and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cottam, who were recently married in Salt Lake, are visiting friends and relatives in this city prior to their departure for St. George, where they will make their home.

Mrs. G. E. Beckett of Swan Lake, Ida., accompanied by Mrs. G. E. Beckett, Jr., are visiting in the city, guests of Mrs. Caroline Smith.

Miss Veda Chambers spent a few days at Smithfield during the week.

Mrs. J. Frank Merrill and company, and their friends was a great social success. The hall and reception rooms were artistically arranged with flowers. There were about seventy-five couples present.

Instead of the regular teachers' meeting last Monday a game of basketball was played on the Franklin school grounds.

Keith-O'Brien Co.

Final Winding Up of Oriental Rug Sale

OURFALIAN'S COLLECTION

Before P. S. Ourfalian's Departure for the Orient on his Annual Purchasing Trip

Mr. Ourfalian has decided to dispose of as many as possible of his choice rugs in order to enable himself to secure a big supply from the rug marts. He has put aside their actual values, and offers them at such nominal prices that home furnishers can well afford to secure their needs from this sale.

Rugs were never before and probably never again will be sold at prices as low as we are offering them during this sale.

Remember, Mr. Ourfalian's stock of Oriental Rugs carries the guarantee of the store for genuineness and quality. You take no risk in purchasing your rugs, as he is a permanent dealer and no doubt his past seven years' experience in dealing with Salt Lake residents must assure you of this fact.

Now Comes Our Big Semi-Annual Sale of Dress Goods

Strong Reductions from Regular Prices-- Enough of a Saving to Make Buying an Object. Choice, New Weaves and a Wide Assortment -- Nearly Our Entire Stock

You will like these goods. There is such a wide variety, such excellent qualities and styles. The tailored suitings run to fancy mixtures, with satin striped effects and diagonal mixtures. The serges are especially popular this season. The satin finished cloths, greatly admired, are in splendid demand. About this time of the year we always arrange for this sale and it never fails to draw crowds of shoppers.

50c MIXED SUITING, 25c a yard--36 inches wide, mixed suiting in stripe and neat check effects, light colors. Splendid for school dresses.

SERGES AND PANAMAS, 48 to 54 inches wide, dust shedding and cool fabrics, which make suits of exceptionally long service. Colors navy, brown, tan, green, red and heliotrope. Values $1.25 up to $2.00--95c yard.

ENTIRE STOCK OF MIXED TAILOR SUITINGS, exclusive tailor patterns and novelty dress patterns. One-third off regular prices.

500 REMNANTS OF DRESS GOODS in lengths from one-half to eight yards, in every popular weave, in black and colors. 25 to 33 1-3 off regular prices.

75c SERGES, MOHAIRS, PANAMAS, 50c a yard--38 and 40 inches wide. Serges, Mohairs, Panamas and Worsteds Fabrics. For service and durability there is no better wearing material. Just the goods for bathing and gymnasium suits. Colors brown, green, blue and red.

PLAIN AND FANCY WEAVES, 44 to 50 inches. In this lot will be found French tulle, Panamas, mohairs, serges, diagonals, vigoreaux and batistes in dark and medium colors. Values $1.25 to $1.50--95c yard.

FRENCH VOILES AND VEILINGS, 44 to 48 inches wide. All wool and silk and wool, beautifully woven, finished with a crispness that makes good French voiles so fascinating. Half regular prices.

SOMETHING NEW

Entirely Original With Us

SWEET'S CREME DE MENTHE CHERRIES

(Pronounced Cream De Mint)

CHERRIES

Chocolate Covered

For Discriminating Tastes

"They simply melt in your mouth"

At All Drug Stores

TODAY

40c Box

40c Box

and a lunch was served. Twenty guests

Miss Pearl Jorgensen is home after a short visit in the northern part of the state.

Miss Floesie Poulson has returned from Salt Lake, where she has been studying music the past winter.

Mrs. A. C. Riser of Salt Lake City is visiting with her mother here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Wells were visiting relatives in Collinston during the week.

Mrs. C. C. Valentine spent several days with friends at Collinston this week.

J. S. Hull, manager of the Maple Grove hatchery, was in Ogden.

Miss Lucille Jensen of Logan was visiting in Brigham the fore part of the week.

W. T. Harding of Malad, Ida., was in Brigham Saturday.

John Summers, manager of the Bear River Valley Telephone company, was in Brigham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marchant have gone to California for short pleasure trip.

Mrs. Lorenzo N. Stohl, who has been quite ill for some time past, is on the improve.

RICHFIELD.

The stake officers of the Y. L. M. I. A. surprised Mrs. Leonard Ogden at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Chidester, and gave her a bundle shower on Monday evening. The time was spent in music and games and a dainty lunch was served.

H. N. Hayes spent the past week in Richfield with his family this week, returning to Salt Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Della Boyson of Montana is visiting in Richfield with relatives.

Theodore Brandley, a former resident of Richfield, who now resides in Canada, spent the past week in this city visiting with friends.

Mrs. William Ogden entertained last Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Alexander Fraser of Canada and Mrs. Christensen of Brigham Junction. The affair was enjoyed by sixteen guests, and a very pleasant time was spent.

W. S. Rust has returned from a trip to the Madeline valley of California, where he spent some time looking over the country with a view to settling there.

W. H. Clark has returned from a short trip to Salt Lake and Ogden, where he went in the interest of the beet growers.

A surprise party was given at the home of Miss Fern Thurston Sunday night in honor of Miss Prudence Poulson. The evening was enjoyed in games and music.

be served, and a program of songs will

Miss Mary Clark entertained a number of friends at a sumptuous dinner party Saturday evening. Covers were laid for six.

J. J. Woodring, a former resident of this city, paid his friends a short visit the past week, returning to Salt Lake City on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shepard entertained a party of friends Sunday night. Cards were played and refreshments were served.

Bishop Black of Marysville has been in Richfield the past week. He will move his family here in the near future.

PAYSON.

The B. Y. U. Dramatic club of Payson presented the "Amazons" at the Payson opera house Saturday night.

G. N. Childs, superintendent of Utah county public schools, was in Payson the first of the week. He reports the schools as being in a very good condition.

German E. Ellsworth, president of the northern states mission, has been visiting in Payson for a few days. He leaves the first of the week for his home in Chicago.

Miss Ethel Allen of Provo spent Thursday with friends in Payson.

Miss Lisle Riggs, who is attending school at the University of Utah, is visiting for a few days at home.

Dan Pack was an Ogden visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sargent and G. P. Hulsh left the first of the week for Raymond, Canada.

Mrs. J. J. Scharrer is visiting in Blackfoot, Ida., with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Clayton.

Miss Dora Daniels entertained the B. B. girls at her home Thursday. At 6 p.m. lunch was served by the hostess.

Miss Ruth Liddle returned home Wednesday after a visit with friends in Salt Lake.

River Simons returned to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon after spending a week's vacation at home.

Continued on Page 9.